- Highways - To raise any issues 1402/25
An email has been received from highways regarding Pockthorpe Road saying – At the present time the council is working on the forward maintenance programme for 2025-26 financial year and although Pockthorpe Road is not on the list, this does not rule out that some works may be carried out on the road.
There is a pothole outside the chapel.
- Emergency Services Update – Cllr Nunns, to receive any updates. 1403/25
Three cameras have been allocated to residents in the village from the Police and Crime Commissioners, this will allow the residents to film bad driving which will then be submitted to the police for review.
Recruitment is underway for the fire service and police.
- Phone Box – To discuss the future use of the phone box 1404/25
Deferred.
- SID – To receive an update, discuss the licence with ERYC and decide whether to proceed with the purchase. 1405/25
A resolution was passed to put the purchase of the Sid on hold due to the costs being asked by ERYC highways. It was agreed to write to the ward councillors, Police Crime Commissioner and our MP, to express the councils dissatisfaction and frustration regarding the costs/challenges being faced in placing a SID in the village.
Proposed by Cllr Christie and seconded by Cllr Nunns, all in favour.
- Correspondence 1406/25
None
- Clerk Report 1407/25
The overflowing bins at the KPFA has been reported to ERYC and I have asked whether they can be replaced by larger bins.
The paperwork has been submitted to adopt the BT phone box.
- Councillors Reports 1408/25
Thank you to Cllr Savile for allowing the council to use the meeting room.

The date of the next Parish Council meeting will be on Monday 12th May 2025 at 7pm at The Star Meeting Rooms.
There being no further business to discuss the Chairman closed the meeting at 8.30pm.
